A Springfield special to yesterday's Globe-Democrat has the following: There appears to be some negotiations going on between the Independent-Grange Reform men and the Demouracy. To-day S. S. Jack, of Dooa-tur, one of the "Texas Steers" of the Haines Logislature, and now controlling a paper at Decatur, Dr. Sibley, of bribery and intimidation. the same place, and I. A. Buckingham, member of the Democratic State Contral Committee from the thirteenth Congressional district, were here to-day, cleseted with Ed. Merritt, secretary of the aforesaid committee. The nature "wry-necks" propose to make to the Domocracy, nor the result of their conforence to-day, have not been made

Farmer Jack is evidently having a serious time of it, in coming to a conclusion as to whother he shall support the ticket nominated by the Decatur tien the unpardonable political sin of convention, or go back on it ontirely, treachery. Holding the power in a and so he has been consulting with his Republican State by virtue of a com-Democratic brothron about it. Inasmuch as the Times has not hoisted the the removal of a Republican Governor ticket yet, it is fair to presume that the simply and solely because he is a Re-Domocratic sanhodrim did not give the Farmer the desired permission. It seems, therefore, that the matter has about resolved itself down to this shape: The Times, which is the organ of the Independents of Macon county, cannot support the Decatur ticket till its editor is graciously permitted to do so by his Demogratic musters, to whom he evidently owes an allegiance which entirely overshadows any claims that the Independent Reformers may have upon him, and yet he claims to have out loose from his old political associa-

MT. ZION IN THE U. S. COURT.

The validity of the bonds voted by Mt. Ziou township, in aid of the D. S. & M. R. R., is now being tested in the special to the Inter-Ocean says:

A very important question as to the construction of the constitution was argued this afternoon. In the year 1870 the present constitution was adopted. On the day of its adoption, July 2, the people of Mt. Zion township, Macon county, voted at the same time and place upon a proposition to subscribe $20,000 to the Decatur, Sullivan & Mattoon Railroad company. The sub-scription was 'carried. The article of getting anything done appears to be find that article provides that no such subscriptions in aid of railroads was also adopted that day, and that article provides that no such subscription shall be valid unless it shall have been votale prior to the adeption of the article. Now as to the facts: The town authorities subsequently issued the bonds as subscribed, and one it. S. Gilman now sucs the town on the interest coupons. The town defends against the validity of the bonds, and claims that as the Supreme Court of the State had said, in 62 lilinois, p. 321 that that suite was assured to possible and the subscription was to the states of getting anything done appears to be figures, being present, was sworn according to being present, was sworn according to be fore the committee of getting anything done appears to be figures, which present, was a suprise to everybody that the testimony implicated Belkaap in resided in New York about eight years. In reply to a general question, be said in the summer of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was subscribed, and one offer a suggestion. The Democratic members are intended in New York, Mrs. Bellinois, possible and of the committee of getting anything done appears to be first that the same thing to law. He testified that he had resided in New York about eight years. In reply to a general question, he said in the summer of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was to the facts: The town authorities subsequently issued the bonds as subscribed, and one offer a suggestion. The Democratic members are in the summer of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was the money of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was the money of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was the money of 1870 myself and wife spent some weeks at Long Branch, and one was the money of 1870 myself and wife spent som Mattoon Railroad company. The sub-scription was carried. The article of of getting anything done appears to be the State and said, in 62 Illinois, p Democratic majority to Congress was, 321, that that article was adopted on in reality, a crushing defeat for Bour-the day it was voted, therefore these bonism. It was so much easier for bonds were not voted prior to its adop- Democrats to criticise the doings of the tion, but simultaneous with it, and therefore are unconstitutional and void. After an exhaustive argument by II. S. Green for plaintiff and A. B. Bunn for defense, the court took the case under advisement. A singular coincidence developed during the total of this case was the last that the Hon. Milton-Hay, who is now one of the counsels for the plaintiffs, was the author of this article of the constitution while a memher of the convention of 1870.

It is announced that no call for a State Temperance Convention in Illinois will be made this year. There is attention or endanger the success of cither party by the introduction of

THERE is a man living in Taunton, Mass., who has had rather a checkered erreer. He has been twice shipwreeked; was nearly baked in a railroad aceldent; has been run away with times a rope around his neck from suprise to supset in an Alabama town at the outbreak of the rebellion; was crushed by a falling building during an earthquake in California, and was without food or drink nearly fifty hours; and when hood. -Inter-Ocean. going home from the White l'ine mines narrowly escaped lynching. BRIBERY, INTIMIDATION AND TREACHERY.

St. Louis Journal.

While we sympathize with the loyal people of Mississippi and Louisiana in their struggle with lawless and unseru pulous men for the maintenance of that Republican form of Government guaranteed to them by the constitution of the United States, we must congratulate the country upon the fact that the Confederates, who, according to Ben. Hill, "have come back into the Union to stny," are proving to the people of

In Mississippi, a Confederate Legis-lature, elected by the use of the shotgun and the torch, have impeached the Governor elected by a majority of the HIS RESIGNATION OF THE people of the State simply and solely because he is a Republican. This body of the proposition, if any, which the of men, holding power through bribery, intimidation and murder-through the suppression by corruption and violence of a 30,000 majority, are exhibiting to the world the results of their political rascality-the first fruits of a restored

Confederate power.
In Louisiana, the Confederate adds to their crimes of bribery and intimidepromise, the terms of which they now deliberately violate, they contemplate publican, and in defiance of the will of a large majority of the people, Democrats as well as Republicans, and in the face of an almost universal protest from the business interests of the State. The question of Federal interference being one upon which Republicans honestly differ, it may be well that the country should witness the high handed proceedings of the men who, having failed to destroy Republican institutions with the sword, have made up their minds to accomplish their purpose through troachery, with the knife of the assassio, and the midnight torch of the incondiary.

It is, perhaps, proper that the people of the North should be thus notified, on the eve of a national election, of the real animus of the Southern chivalry which has "returned to the Union to

It, with the samples now shown in Mississippi and Louisians, the people see fit to entrust their liberties and United States Court at Springfield. A their property to the malico of the "dear repentant prodigals," they can results sure to follow.

Congress has now been in session something over eleven weeks, and it may fairly be said that scarcely a single measure of public usofulness has been passed. True, seventy bills have passed the House, but they nearly all relate to private business. Not only Republican party than to mark out a policy for thomselves. They find their boasted majority in the House a conglomeration of odds and ends, an association of men unable to understand each other or to work together, and threatening at any moment to break up party caucuses in a free fight.

Is all this calculated to persuade the people to intrust the whole business of the country to the Democracy this fall? Not the most sanguine Confederato in Washington believes or even h pes such a thing.

The prompt explanation submitted a disposition among men of all classes by Senator Morton touching his alleged and sentiments, to let the light be fairly employment by the Emma mine manon political questions, and not distract implators is eminently satisfactory, and shows how easily a man's name may be associated in disroputable schemes of which his hands are absolutely cloan. Great Excitement in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The report that Marsh, of New York, testiied, yesterday, before the committee on expenditures in the war department, that he paid Mrs. Beiknap $10,000 for a post tradership, and $6,000 annually since, and that the Scoretary has not denied the truth of the charge, became generally known, this morning, and caused much surprise and excitewith the President, in company with Chandler, Morton and others, the subject discussed involving the resignation of Secretary Belkusp.

Belkusp has remained at his private residence, to-day, not having visited the war department. He says there are many complications to be explained to the committee, and he has therefore requested to be allowed to make a statement before it.

In the House, to-day, Clymer preagainst William W. Belknap, late secretary of war, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office. leb P. Marsh, one of the witnesses ordered to be subprensed by the committee, being present, was sworn accor-ding to law. When sent by express, l always deposited the money personally and took a receipt for it. I have frequently corresponded with the Secretary of War, and have forwarded rement is omeial circles. Inquiries being made resulted in the general belief to credence, and this belief has been strengthened by the fact that about 10 o'clock, Belknap held an interview with the President, in company with was a subject of conversation between Belknap and myself. I came to Washington on Wednesday, the 23d of this morning. Here follows the statement of doington on Wednesday, the bound of the month. I went to the house of the Secretary of War, staid Wednesday Secretary Belknap to the committee, night and returned on Thursday morn—which was rejected. Then the record ing. I showed him the telegraphic of to-day's doings in the committee night and returned on Thursday mornsubports and asked him what it meant.

He said he supposed it was to state before the committee what I knew for and received the president's acceptabout our transaction together. I said ance of Belknap's resignation, together with the time when it was delivered. I dined there and spent the evening and staid all night, retiring about 12 o'clock. The evening was devoted to discussing this matter. I told her the statement wouldn't hold water before the committee, and even if it would I could not make it. At the same time, I was wrought up and had such anxiety, she having slept little since the receipt of subnorms, and asymmethizing with their receipt of subnorms, and asymmethic the subnorms and principal or interest and having slept little since the receipt of subposes, and sympathizing with their condition. Harper's Magazine ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press: The ever-increasing circulation of thi excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. In leed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates eyery month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its was popularity has been wen by no appeal to stapid prejudice or deprayed tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine pos-messes for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable com-placency. It also entities them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Mag-azine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
